Summary

Hi, I am Antony. I am 19.
I have always regarded myself as a single-minded person who does his best to achieve his objectives. Nevertheless, I am good at exploring and learning new things. I can also be described as a creative person, that is why I am trying to learn Front-End developement at present. I have always believed that creativity leads to perfectionism, so I enjoy getting everything in order. I must mention that I am a "team player" and can easily cooperate with other people.
